"Our school is much more than a beautiful building. It is a closely knit community of administrators, teachers, students, and parents. I am extremely honored and proud to have been selected on the first faculty to staff Granite City High School North. The few problems and complications experienced last year have enhanced the pride which I feel today, as I witness the daily routine of our school. It amazes me that we have accomplished so much in such a short time."

"I have a very positive attitude. I think this school is well organized. It is not only well organized but the students, faculty, and administration seem to be cooperative with each other. However, I think we should attempt to improve our curriculum and give the students more choices. I feel very fortunate being a faculty member at North.

With the opening of North Senior High School there seemed to be a feeling that the school was not quite as competent as South Senior High School, whose tradition and honors were already known to the community. Many parents and students were in fact upset with the possibility that they may be placed in North's District.

Since that time we at North have "Proved" ourselves to be as worthy of the recognition and honors that can be awarded as any major high school in the state. This was achieved by the co-operation and hard work of the faculty and staff of North.

"My thoughts on Granite High North have come from a position of observation which many teachers do not have the opportunity or vantage point of viewing. When in two short years, a group of widely diversified individuals with a multiplicity of interests can come together and begin to forge a concrete foundation of 'group centered' purposes, then we've got the makings of a tremendous school. When in today's society the 'big thing' is 'do your thing for yourself' and 'don't worry too much about the other guy', it's most gratifying to witness day by day the interaction of our North student body in their day by day contact 'hanging in there, and taking interest in the other guy'."

I've been proud to participate in the planning and development of a new school. It seems to me that the attitudes of enthusiasm and cooperation among students and faculty alike are outstanding. I feel that North is a fine school. Our curriculum enables the students to get a fine preparation for later life in many different areas. The students have many extra-curricular activities in which they may participate. Most important is the spirit of co-operation that students bring to their school. Many take an active part in trying to improve it. Although improvement is always possible, I am proud to be a part of North High School.

"NORTH SUPREMACY" is the word. We are much superior in school spirit among administration, faculty, custodial staff, and student body. This spirit makes us great and is showing itself through all phases of our school. "Always Something Special", in the words of Jack Edsel pretty well sums up the attitude around North High School. The students are special and in two years have made the school known as something special both locally and state wide.

D. R.—CHANGE IS SOMETIMES BEST

I have this friend, he's quite a card.
He drinks, smokes, and is rather hard
On the English language. In short,
I guess he's a radical (of a sort).
Radical or not, he has quite a way
With females, and woos them night and day.
(Which makes one want to stop and think
If femaledom is on the brink
Of self-destruction. Or if it is just
That they find all radicals a "must".)
Most consider his so-called life, as of late,
As nothing more than smoke, drink, date.
While some would consider this paradise,
To others it's a mess, as in my eyes.
But since I've no influence, life must go on.
I'll be a king and he'll be a pawn.
Of course, to him, things may be the other way around.
I do believe this story is beginning to sound
As if I'm confused. I thought he was going inevitably down,
Until I noticed his face, upon which is never a frown.
I do believe I'll take a long-earned rest,
And review my life, which seems to be in a mess.

IN THE DAY AND IN THE NIGHT

Snow
So pure and white
In the day,
And in the night.

Sunshine
So sure and bright
In the day,
Not in the night.

Stars
A beautiful sight
Not in the day.
But in the night.

Sleep Welcoming and right
In the day
And in the night.

Life
So free and light
In the day,
And in the night.

Death
Sneaky and slight
In the day,
And in the night.

By Roberta Ferguson

SITTING HERE QUIETLY

I'm sitting here quietly
Thinking of time.
How long will it stay,
This sadness of mine?
As long as winter's cold,
As short as your goodbye,
No more like my dreams
Of forever. . .like why?
Can I be gladdened
And offered a hand?
I could. . .there's one.
Must he be banned?
This sadness—it stays.
While sickness moves fast.
Sit quietly—think of me.
Together—our past.

By Kerry Whelan

THE DARK SILHOUETTE

The dark silhouette of a seaman's sloop
Gliding gracefully, swiftly
Pushing forward through restless waves,
Vanishing over the lustrous horizon.

A SPIDER'S WEB

A single strand of silken thread stretching from beam to beam;
the lifeline of a masterpiece.

By Donna Burke

OF COUNTRY AND MEN

You say you love your country,
And your fellow countrymen,
But then you hate your neighbor,
For the shade of his skin.
And if his clothes are ragged and he is somewhat poor,
Are you ashamed to say he's a friend of yours?
And if he's young with new ideas or his hair is long and free,
Then you say he's trying to harm your country.
And what about your country
You say you love so true?
Those never-ending skies that used to be so blue
Now are filled with smoke and smog, all because of you.
Your land of the free and home of the brave
From the littered streets they're trying to save.
And your crystal blue waters that were once so clean,
Now are nothing, but an ugly shade of green.
You claim you love your country,
And your fellow countrymen.
If so, then why do you do things to harm
Your fellow friend and land?

By Patty Bates

POEM

The air, fresh and clean,
Trees soaring into the skies,
Wild flowers, blooming in the fields,
Rivers and lakes, unpolluted and blue,
All this, untouched by human hands.

THE NORTH-SOUTH SOCCER GAME

The game would be hard, both teams well knew,
And they'd attack each other when the whistle blew.
In order to win they would have to play smart,
But the win would be decided in each player's heart.

And when the game would finally begin,
The team with the most desire to win
Would march on the field and look very bold
And would try its hardest to shoot the ball in the goal.

The stands were crowded and everyone screamed
With cheers and songs in support of their team.
Excitement would grow as both teams moved forth,
Half were for South and half were for North.

Now the Steelers can win in any weather,
For as a team, they stick together
And each time, they pass to any teammate
They're working for that great goal of State!

South scoring first, it looked like North's fate,
But the Steelers were tough and it wasn't too late
For they increased the pressure more and more,
And with seconds remaining, North evened the score!

In the overtime their adrenalin flowed
And, as if told the outcome, they all would know
That the Warriors would lose on this Tuesday night,
But they wouldn't go down without a heck of a fight.

Now, as if the Warriors were put in a noose,
The North Steelers power soon broke loose.
Overpowering opponents, they raced to the ball,
And bombarded the goalie with shots without pall.

Although the statistics had leaned South's way,
They wished they hadn't come to North that day.
For on North's field, in that hot sun
South dropped the decision, two to one!

Now the team was all happy, and everyone did know,
That the happiest of all was Mr. Kehoe.
And he was so happy that he shed a tear
For North gained revenge for their losses last year.

Coach's Comment

The first condition of success is to know what result we desire to produce. The lads who wore the black and gray knew what result they were aiming for—the state tournament! I had told them in August that they had the talent to reach the tournament, but that it would take hard work to get there. Now, everyone wants to succeed, but some want to so much that they are willing to work for it. They worked long and hard in practice and in competition. They were involved in six sudden-death overtime games and lost only one of them. Their pride, desire, and talent gave North its first I.H.S.A. Sectional championship on the afternoon of November 5, 1974, when they beat South for the right to go to the state tournament. We were eliminated from the state tournament by New Trier, the eventual state champion, which eased our sorrow, somewhat. Someone once said that "happiness can only be earned." If that is true, the '74 Steeler soccer players should be a happy bunch, because they sure earned it. I hope everyone at North is as proud of them as I am; another job well done, lads!

Coach's Comment

I felt our bowling season was very successful this year. Being the first girls bowling team from North to win a District Tournament was indeed a great honor. The girls worked well with one another and their pulling together as a team, always encouraging one another, was a big factor in our winning the District Tournament. We learned a great deal this year, and I feel we will be back next year stronger than ever.

What is a trainer? Oh, that's someone who makes dogs, lions, and seals do tricks for people!

To most of you this is what you think when you hear the word "trainer". Well, as you may have already assumed, that is not what we mean.

Trainers are people that dedicate their time to the preventing of and caring for injuries. The trainers are always present at every practice and game. They possess the knowledge to evaluate and care for the injured person.

Athletic Trainers

Trainers spend many hours at their job; they arrive at practice and games before the coaches, and remain afterward until everything has been taken care of.

The rewards these young men and women receive are like grains of salt compared to the time they spend. In fact, most coaches don't give them credit or thanks. They are the unknown athletes both on and off the field.

North High In The 70's

Through the hard work and dedication of many persons, North has become the dynamic force that it is today. Only with perseverance and sacrifice were we able to mold North into a school which we believe is second to none. We hope the 1975 INGOT yearbook will be a reminder of our school and times. One day we will be nostalgic for the 70's.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently in their own homes; older people should be able to access the services they need; and older people should be able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's services. These include: to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; to ensure that older people are able to live independently in their own homes; to ensure that older people are able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives; and to ensure that older people are able to access the services they need.
